COMING ATTRACTION

Film Study Group
Presents

The Bicycle Thief

October 26

Directed by Vittorio De Sica - the names in the cast wouldn't mean anything to you because the players were chosen by De Sica from the people he found around him as he started filming his story on the streets of Rome. It tells of a man and his son and their search for the bicycle that had been stolen from him just when he needed it to help him get a job. It's funny and exciting and sad. "Best foreign film of the year"
